

The Social Justice Lecture Series presents:

CHANGING THE WORLD WITHOUT HAVING A CLUE

OCTOBER 11 @ 5PM
OSTRANDER AUDITORIUM

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Motivational speaker Greg Bennick, founder of One Hundred for Haiti, is returning to campus to speak about how he went from touring the world with his hardcore band to founding a human rights nonprofit. This talk is sure to inspire and empower the audience to start changing the world.

CALLING ALL ACTIVISTS! October 11, 6:30pm

Immediately following the talk and Q & A, will be an interactive workshop where you will work with Greg to brainstorm ways to bring your ideas to reality.

FREE snacks will be provided!

Event Sponsors:

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
AND CORRECTIONS

